

ANSWERS - WEEK 3

BLACK HISTORY MONTH TRIVIA

He was the first African American to host a nationally broadcast TV show. His show debuted in 1956. Who is he and what was the name of the show?

NAT KING COLE, "THE NAT KING COLE SHOW"

More About The Nat King Cole Show

This college was the first integrated, co-educational college in the South, and it's tuition free—still to this day! Give the name of the college and where it is located.

BEREA COLLEGE
Berea, Kentucky

"How this Kentucky college offers education without financial burden" PBS News Hour (Video)

He was the first African American person to be artistic director at a French luxury fashion house when he joined Louis Vuitton's menswear in 2018.

VIRGIL ABLOH

Virgil Abloh's 2022 Men's Fall -Winter Show - Louis Vuitton (Video)

Which singer is remembered as The Queen of Jazz

ELLA FITZGERALD

Ella & Duke Ellington perform "It Don't Mean a Thing \(If it Ain't Got That Swing\)" (Video)